Dear Spartan,

On behalf of New Student & Spartan Family Programs, we welcome you to UNCG and to SOAR! We are happy that you have decided to join the UNCG family. The goal of SOAR is to assist you and your family in your transition to UNCG; use this booklet and the information you learn at SOAR to help guide you. Throughout the program, you will receive additional information regarding academic support, campus life, and resources offered to you by UNCG.

Once you have completed SOAR, New Student & Spartan Family Programs is still here for you throughout the academic year. Be sure to attend events during Rawkin’ Welcome Week to get to know UNCG and meet new friends. To help guide you through your first year at UNCG, visit the Your First Year website at yourfirstyear.uncg.edu.

As you can see in this schedule, there are so many great things for you at UNCG. You can always contact us for further information about any of the resources and opportunities listed inside.

Enjoy your time at SOAR!

Sincerely,

New Student & Spartan Family Programs Staff

THE UNIVERSITY 5 CORE VALUES

/// HONESTY
An academic community of integrity advances the quest for truth and knowledge by requiring intellectual and personal honesty in learning, teaching, research, activities, and service. Cultivating honesty lays the foundation for lifelong integrity, developing in each of us the courage and insight to make difficult choices and accept responsibility for actions and their consequences, even at a personal cost.

/// FAIRNESS
An academic community of integrity establishes clear standards, practices, and procedures and expects fairness in the interactions of students, faculty, and administrators. For students, important components of fairness are predictability, clear expectations, and a consistent and just response to dishonesty. Faculty and administrators also have a right to expect fair treatment, not only from students but also from colleagues and the administration.

/// TRUST
An academic community of integrity fosters a climate of trust, encourages the free exchange of ideas, and enables all to reach their highest potential. Only with trust can we believe in and rely on others and move forward as a community. Within an environment of trust, we can collaborate with individuals, sharing information and ideas without fear that our work or property will be stolen, our career stunted, or our reputations diminished. Through trust, our communities can believe in the social value and meaning of an institutions’ scholarship and degrees.

/// RESPECT
An academic community of integrity recognizes the participatory nature of the learning process and honors and respects a wide range of opinions, ideas, and cultures.

/// RESPONSIBILITY
An academic community of integrity upholds personal accountability and depends upon action in the face of wrongdoing. Every member of an academic community -- each student, faculty member, and administrator -- is responsible for upholding the integrity of the community.
We’re proud to have you here at UNCG and hope you’ll take advantage of many of the special programs and services just for you.

- UNCG grants 6 hours of transfer credit for completing basic training.

- There are designated on-campus personnel in key offices and departments including the Chancellor’s Office, Registrar’s Office, Admissions, and Student Affairs who serve as liaisons for military-affiliated students.

- The Veterans Networking Program pairs current UNCG military students with new military and veteran affiliated students to enhance the support experience through regular contact and resource referral.

- The Student Veteran Association is a student organization that provides peer support, social activities, and raises awareness of military/veteran student issues on campus.

- There are a wide range of Spartan community activities to support the military, such as Veterans Day Remembrance events, fund-raising for military families in need, care packages sent to deployed students, and more.

- The Veterans Resource Center is designed as a place where veteran and dependent students can have questions answered, find support, or just relax in a comfortable setting.

UNCG has been awarded the “Military Friendly School” designation by GI Jobs magazine for FOUR consecutive years, placing it in the top 15% of colleges and universities nationwide that are doing the most to support veterans and ensure their success.
